CHANGING LIVES • CHANGING THE WORLD

The Summit will host 50-60 women veterans and will be a day with offerings that focus on overall wellness – body, mind, emotional balance and spiritual connection. Topics and speakers/ workshop presenters (also women veterans) will be focused on the specific needs of the women veteran community. Here are some topics that might be part of the day that our focus groups have indicated are important:

- Transition from military to civilian life
- Family relationships
- From WE to ME – self-identity after military service
- Techniques for coping with anxiety, depression, MST and PTSD
- Peer Counseling – Woman Veteran to Woman Veterans
- Peer Groups – facilitated by a Woman Veteran

“Our nation does not yet adequately recognize and celebrate the contributions of women in military service, treat them with dignity and respect, or promote their successful transition to civilian life.”
